this book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure sartre s the words perec s w or the memory of childhood and sarraute s childhood calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources conventional and original metaphors in french autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner these common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer in the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading après une introduction synthétique offrant une vue d'ensemble de l'œuvre de Georges Perec et de sa réception critique le livre met en lumière la diversité des genres des registres et des stratégies d'écriture pratiqués par l'auteur de la vie mode d'emploi l'enjeu dépasse les questions souvent débattues du mélange des genres du mâtissage ou de l'hybridation il s'agit avant tout de dialogues de la prise en compte des différences radicales des discours en présence notamment entre fiction et autobiographie face à une œuvre foncièrement polymorphe l'approche se veut multipolaire et résolument ouverte refusant toute clôture générique thématique ou biographique ainsi l'examen approfondi d'un livre comme W ou le souvenir d'enfance éclaire la complexité des relations entre texte et paratexte l'accent mis sur le montage de récits antithétiques donne lieu à une approche comparatiste de Faulkner à Barthes et Robbe-Grillet l'importance accordée au dialogue des genres permet d'inscrire l'œuvre dans le contexte plus large de la nouvelle autobiographie souligner le rôle primordial des contraintes ouvre sur des problèmes théoriques relatifs aux différentes stratégies de lecture mises en jeu la nouvelle place donnée à l'espace textuel conduit à réfléchir sur un aspect longtemps négligé de la poétique perécquienne la dimension scriptographique celle-ci n'est plus perçue comme une composante externe et contingente paratextuelle mais participe pleinement de la textualité de l'œuvre since 1975 french literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the french term criture de soi this coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned in the first book length study in english to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors nathalie sarraute georges perec jean genet and hlné cixous she identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self the interconnections between histories and memories of the holocaust colonialism and extreme violence in post war french and francophone fiction and film provide the central focus of this book it proposes a new model of palimpsestic memory which the author defines as the condensation of different spatio temporal traces to describe these interconnections and defines the poetics and the politics of this composite form in doing so it is argued that a poetics dependent on tropes and techniques such as metaphor allegory and montage establishes connections across space and time which oblige us to perceive cultural memory not in terms of its singular attachment to a particular event or bound to specific ethno cultural or national communities but as a dynamic process of transfer between different moments of racialized violence and between different cultural communities the structure of the book allows for both the theoretical elaboration of this paradigm for cultural memory and individual case studies of novels and films
